

VACANCY - SENIOR OCCUPATIONAL THERAPIST

CHILDVISION, The National Education Centre for Blind Children invites applications from suitably qualified, enthusiastic individuals with excellent interpersonal and communication skills in respect of this position.

The role is best suited to a person who enjoys a varied and interesting working experience. It involves liaison with other professionals to offer a multidisciplinary approach to the clients and their families. The client group itself is quite varied in terms of age and needs - from infants to adolescents who have a visual impairment but in many cases, other disabilities.

Applicants must have a recognised degree in their professional field together with Coru registration. The successful applicant will also have a minimum of three year's experience in field and preference will be given to specific experience with the needs of a similar client population.

ChildVision offers a friendly working environment, generous annual leave, pension scheme to which ChildVision will contribute 7% of salary and subsidised café facilities. The Campus is located in Drumcondra, Dublin 9 and is accessible to M1 /M50 /bus and rail connections.

Applications in writing to comprise CV and cover letter along with the contact details of three referees to:

Director of Human Resources

ChildVision

Gracepark Road

Drumcondra

Dublin 9

terryfbissett@childvision.ie

Closing Date : 12 noon on Thursday 14th July 2022

NB : Garda vetting and full reference checks will apply in respect of the successful candidate

In cases where the successful applicant has resided outside the State for any period of six months or more then police clearance from that jurisdiction will be required.

ChildVision is an Equal Opportunities Employer.

